

North Pacific Coast Marine Resources Committee

(Western Jefferson & Clallam Counties)

Meetings held on Third Tuesdays

4:00 pm to 6:00 pm

Remote Only - More info:
tpokorny@co.Jefferson.wa.us

Ph: 360-379-4498

Makah Tribe

City of Forks

Quileute Tribe

Hoh Tribe

Quinault Indian Nation

Clallam County

Jefferson County

3 Citizen Volunteers from Jefferson County

3 Citizen Volunteers from Clallam County

New Ex-Officio: UW ONRC and WA Sea Grant

Underway since 2019 MRC Summit:

- Science Projects
 - Razor clam gill disease study – PWSSC
 - Rialto Beach study – UW
 - River otter diet study – WWU
- Science Education for Teachers – PEI
- River & Ocean Film Festival (remote in 2020) – Sea Grant

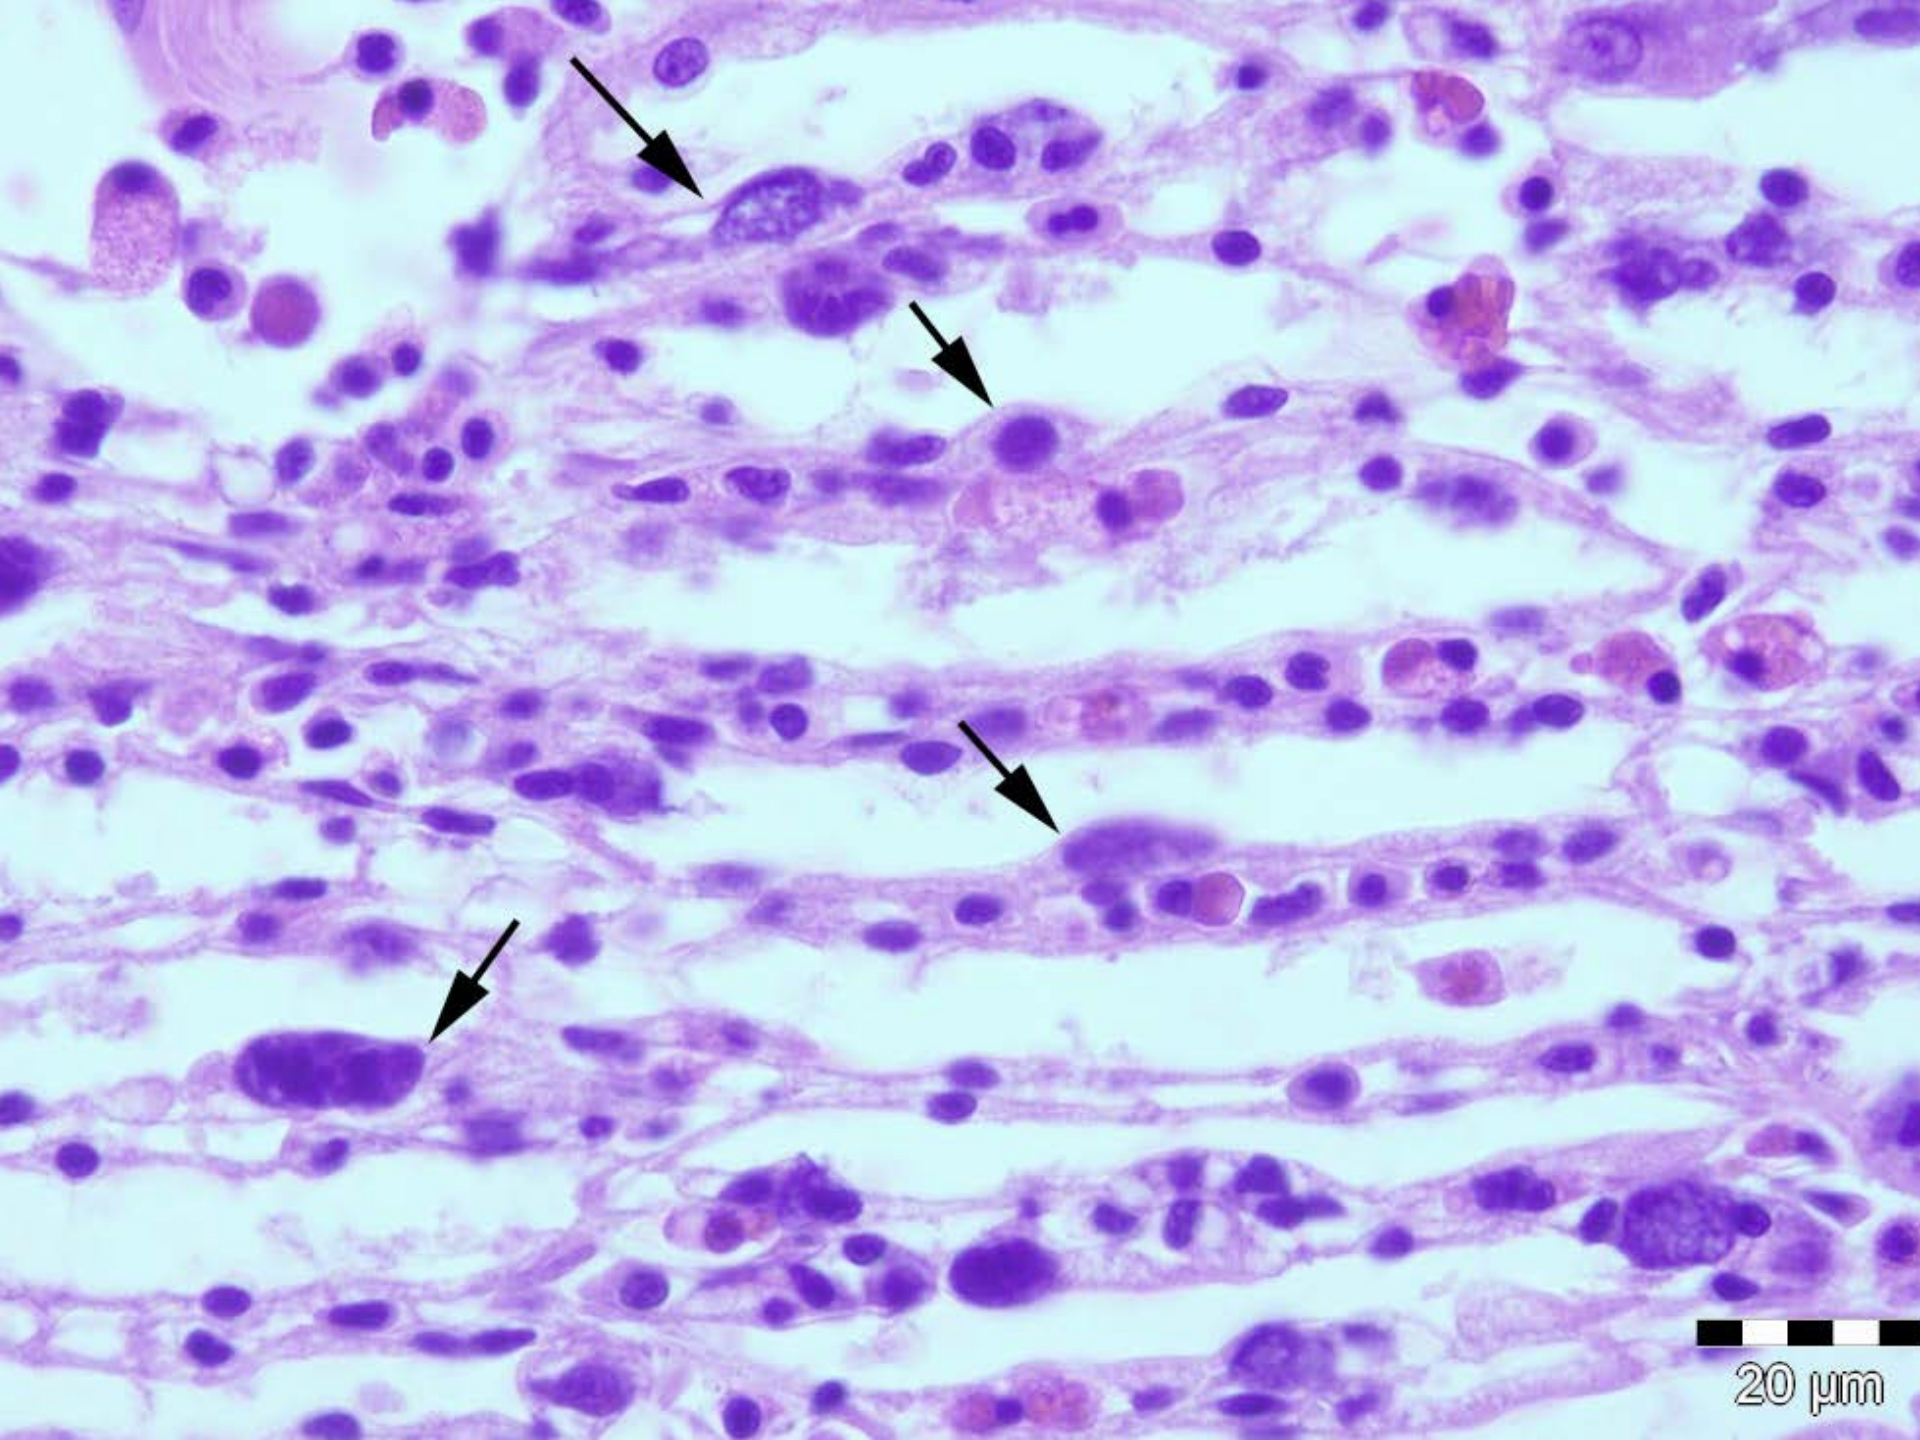

Anticipated this winter and spring:

- Biochar production and outreach – CoastSavers
- Marine Advanced Technology and Education ROV Competition (MATE) – OCNMSF
- 2021 River & Ocean Film Festival – Sea Grant
- West End Natural Resources Newsletters – Jefferson County

Spatial and temporal patterns of bacterial gill disease in razor clams

Prince William Sound Science Center – Maya Groner
in partnership with Olympic National Park – Steve Fradkin

20 μ m

Origin and Erosion of Rialto Beach and Terrace: Implications for Ongoing Geologic Hazards

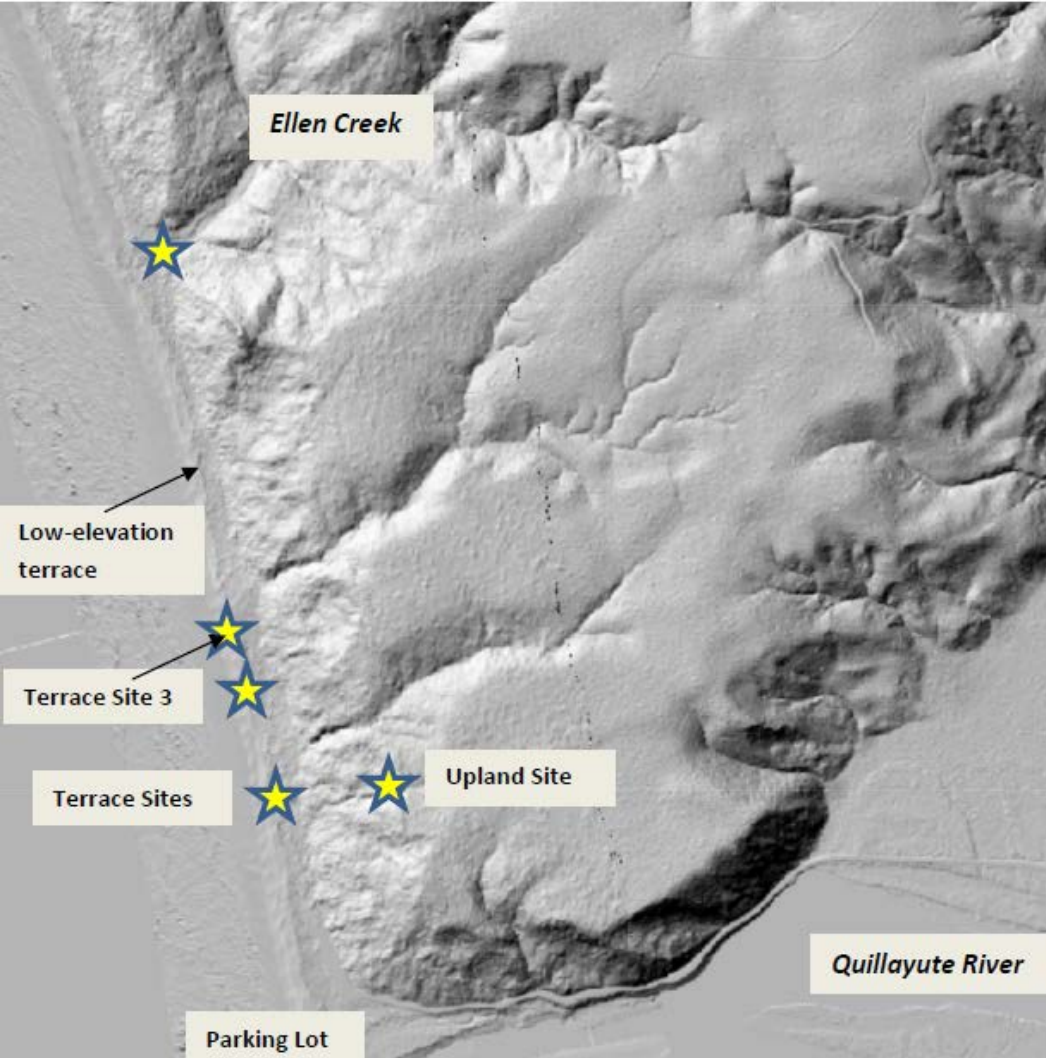

University of Washington – Kathy Troost
Rialto Beach

Origin and Erosion of Rialto Beach and Terrace: Implications for Ongoing Geologic Hazards

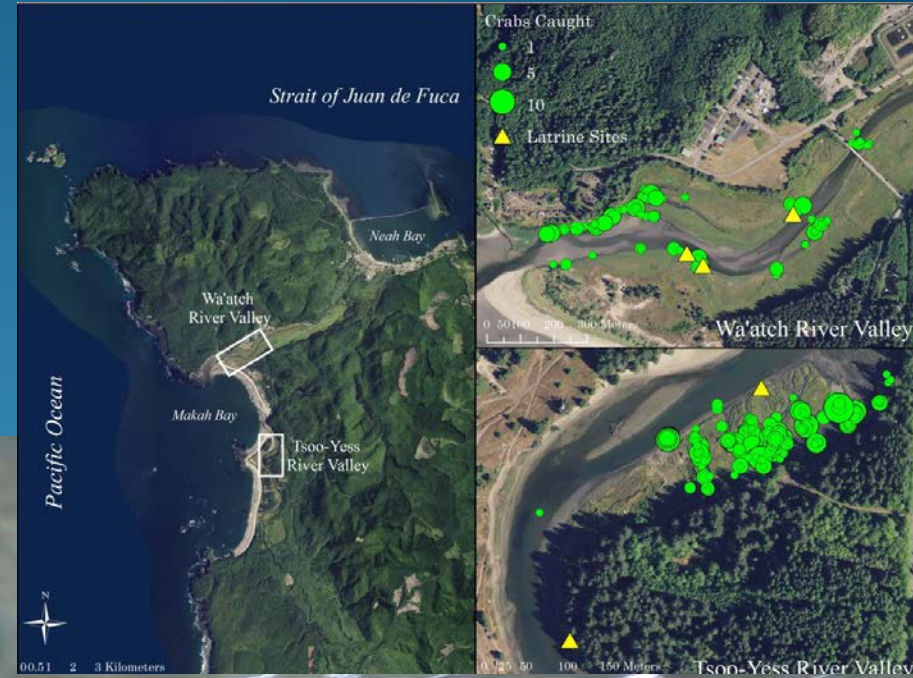

University of Washington – Kathy Troost
Rialto Beach

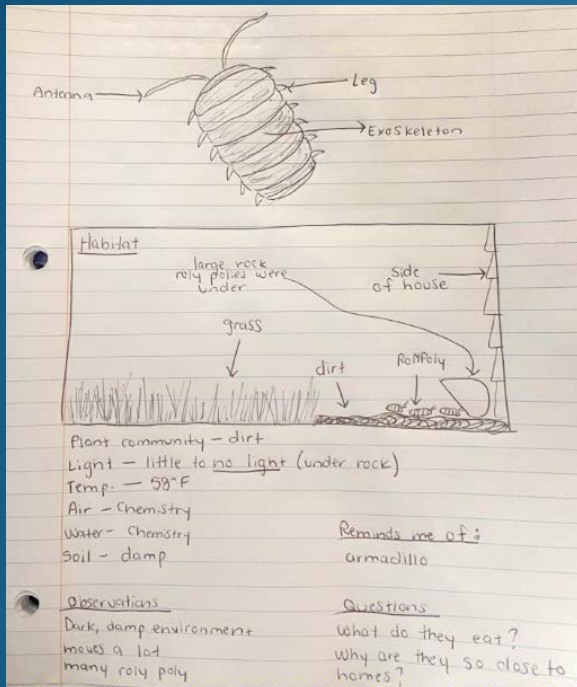

Predation of invasive European green crabs (Carcinus maenas) by river otters (Lontra canadensis) on the lower Wa'atch and Tsoo-Yess rivers

Western Washington University – Bobbie Buzzell

2020 Ocean Science Workshop— Healthy Ocean, Healthy You

Pacific Education Institute – Julie Tennis

In August 2020, sixteen teachers joined facilitators from Olympic Coast National Marine Sanctuary and Pacific Education Institute online for ten hours of professional development.

RainFest River & Ocean Film Festival

Washington Sea Grant – Ian Miller

Enjoy film explorations of our rivers, oceans and the communities that rely on them at the Seventh Annual River and Ocean Film Festival.

March 28 at the Rainforest Arts Center in Forks, Washington.

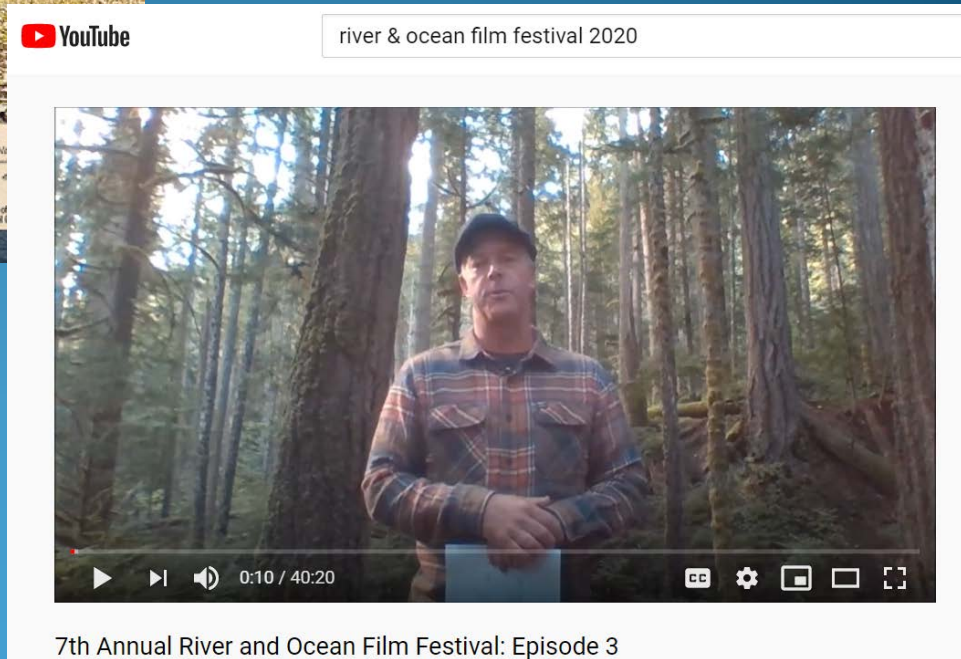

The event is free and family-friendly. The Rainforest Arts Center in Forks, Washington is at the corner of Forks Avenue and Division Street. Doors open at 6 p.m. Films run from 7-9 p.m.

Film submissions invited through February 21! Event details, film line-ups and film submission information at wsg.washington.edu/film-festival/, or by googling "River and Ocean Film Festival."

This event is brought to you by the North Pacific Coast Marine Resources Committee, the City of Forks and the North Pacific Coast Lead Entity. Photo of the Hoh River by Joel Miller.

- Films on river and coast topics
- Locally-made nature films
- Relevant to western Olympic Peninsula

YouTube

river & ocean film festival 2020

0:10 / 40:20

7th Annual River and Ocean Film Festival: Episode 3